Summer Reading Success!

Dear Friends,

We at the Vinita Public Library appreciate those who have generously given of their time, talent and resources to help make this year's Summer Reading Program a great success! The children (and many parents) enjoyed learning about fitness through "On your Mark, Get Set, Read!" Reading logs were turned in for over 1,600 books read during the two week program!

Our leader this year was Ranell Hill, who did an outstanding job assisted by library volunteers Cheyenne Sylvia, Bailey Potter, David Herman, Beth Zwahlen, Chloe Sageser, Bri Herman and Victoria Grossman.

Judy Echenrode, local hygienist, demonstrated dental fitness in dramatic form.

Children who read at least 20 books were entered into a drawing for really cool prizes.

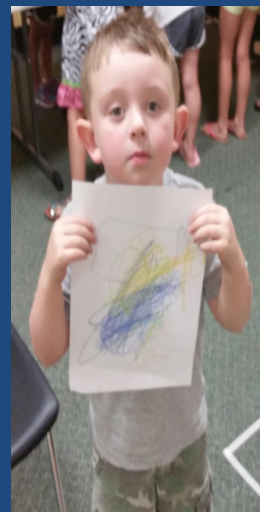

Arvest Bank provided three Visa gift cards, Oklahoma State Bank donated a soccer ball, baseball bats and whiffle balls, and several movie and concession passes, and First National Bank's First to Give group donated basket and soccer balls, hosted a Popsicle party which was a real treat, and brought gifts for every child and parent attending. Sonic provided coupons for free slushes.

Local financial support for the program was provided by the White Foundation. Statewide sponsors of the Summer Reading Program are Sonic--America's Drive-In, Corp., The Oklahoman, and the Oklahoma Department of Libraries. This project was made possible by a grant from the U.S. Institute of Museum and Library Services.

This summer's publicity was generously supported by the Vinita Daily Journal. We thank them for their continuous support of library activities.

Nathan Hale's Hazardous Tales

ALL STARS

By Nathan Hale

Hale relays the facts, politics, military actions, and prominent personalities that defined the Texas Revolution in factual yet humorous scenes that will capture the attention of reluctant readers and fans of history alike.

In the early 1800s, Texas was a wild and dangerous land fought over by the Mexican government, Native Americans, and settlers from the United States. Beginning with the expeditions of the so-called “Land Pirates,” through the doomed stand at the Alamo, and ending with the victory over Santa Anna at the Battle of San Jacinto, the entire Texas saga is on display. Leading the charge to settle this new frontier is Stephen F. Austin, with a cast of dangerous and colorful characters, including Jim Bowie, William Travis, David Crockett, and others.

Through his vivid depiction and additional maps, and biographies located in the back of the book, Nathan Hale brings new insight for students, teachers, and historians into one of the most iconic structures in the United States.
